

MEMORIAM

Tribute, in memoriam, to Riley Malek, 04-21-92 - 09-25-06 I think the best way to pay tribute to my boy Riley, my first Airedale, the light of my life, is as follows:

Channel 23, the oldies TV station used to show Gidget during the summer months, a 60's type of show, with a theme song that I used to call my Riley song. I would sing this song to Riley along with the show, laying next to him on the floor every day at 12:30. The song, which says it all, is as follows:

"If you're in doubt about angels being real

I can arrange to change any doubts that you feel

Wait to see My Riley

You'll want him for your valentine

You're going to say

He's all that you adore

But stay away

Riley is spoken for

You're going to find

That Riley is mine....."

And I would close the song with a hug and a kiss.... I'll love you forever, my darling sweet boy, my Riley.
